

THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
DECATUR DIVISION

IN RE:

BILLY TAYLOR,

Debtor.

BILLY TAYLOR,

Plaintiff,

v.

PENTAGON FEDERAL CREDIT UNION,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 19-70361-CRJ

CHAPTER: 13

JUDGE: HONORABLE CLIFTON R.
JESSUP JR.

CONTESTED MATTER

ADVERSARY PROC NO. 20-80154-CRJ

PENTAGON FEDERAL CREDIT UNION'S SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION TO APPROVE COMPROMISE SETTLEMENT STATEMENT

COMES NOW, Pentagon Federal Credit Union ("PenFed" or "Defendant") and as directed by this Court files its Supplement to Motion to Approve Compromise and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

1. Upon receipt of the instant Complaint, PenFed promptly reviewed the loan and confirmed that it was coded for active bankruptcy. This review further confirmed that PenFed had initiated the refund of the funds at issue to Plaintiff's account.

2. PenFed then, through counsel, engaged Plaintiff's counsel to discuss the allegations contained in the Complaint and the parties agreed to an amicable resolution of all claims contained in Plaintiff's Complaint.

3. PenFed has completed a comprehensive review of its processes and procedures to ensure the appropriate measures are in place to determine when a loan is subject to an active bankruptcy proceeding, the processes that must be completed to ensure no actions are taken that may be construed as violations of the automatic stay, and procedures necessary to circumvent any potential violations of the automatic stay.

4. PenFed recognizes the seriousness of the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. Section 362, any violations of the automatic stay, and the importance of compliance with the automatic stay.

Respectfully submitted on this 15th day of March, 2021.
